W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The regular meeting of the local branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held on Tuesday afternoon at 21 Spruce street. A familiar face was missed from the gathering, that of the late Mrs. Jennie C. Williams, an active member of the association, and for many years its recording secretary, and in that responsible position she was ever ready with her reports at the close of each year, and kept the members of the association informed as to the progress made in the several lines of work in which it was interested. She will be greatly missed by her colleagues in temperance work.

Bowery Mission.

James F. Hunt, business manager of the Bowery Mission, 227 Bowery, New York city, has sent out an appeal as follows:

The Bowery Mission is engaged in the work of securing employment for the many unemployed men who throng the city streets and who form a burden upon, if not a menace to, the community. The mission makes a special effort to get them positions in country places, on farms, etc., where they are sometimes so much needed. During the last five years over 13,416 men have been placed in possession of such jobs. This work entails great expense, as nearly every man who applies is destitute. Many are in a famished condition, and some are quite sick. The mission gladly undertakes the responsibility of restoring them to health and sending them out in a properly qualified physical condition to do the work expected of them, and makes no charge to either employer or employee.

The matter in which special help is needed just now is that of clothing. In order to make a success of their new job, these men need to have proper clothing, and I appeal to your readers with regard to any cast-off garments they may have.

At this period of the year, when the season changes, it will probably be a relief to many people to get rid of such articles. The mission can make use of anything in the way of men's attire, and most earnestly asks that if they have anything of the kind on hand, they will send it to the above address, express paid.

Alpha Social Club.

The Alpha Social Club gave an entertainment and dance in Central Hall Wednesday night. There were selections by the Bloomfield High School Orchestra, bass solo by William Lambert and soprano solo by Miss Renaud. Charles Taggart, ventriloquist and violinist, entertained. The committee in charge was composed of the Misses Sarah Betts, Ida M. Erway, Mabel Howard, Marion Lambert, Florence Cummings and Harold H. Phillips.

Convention Delegates.

The Essex County Republican Committee, at a meeting held Thursday night selected candidates for delegates to the National Republican convention from the Congressional districts in this county. The candidates selected from the Eighth district are: Delegates—Henry M. Doremus, Eighth ward, Newark; William J. Davis, Harrison. Alternates—J. Fairber Goldenhorn, Seventh ward, Jersey City; Benjamin Haskell of this town. None but Taft men were named as delegates.

Fire Prevention Work.

The Fire Prevention Bureau of the Borough of Glen Ridge has issued the following circular letter to the residents of that place:

"The Borough Council at a meeting held April 8, authorized the organization of a Fire Prevention Bureau, to consist of the chairman of the fire committee of the council, the superintendent of buildings, the chief and the assistant chiefs of the fire department. It is the aim of this bureau to advise and suggest precautions and preventives that will reduce the number of fires, and prevent the loss of life and property. This is a matter that vitally affects the interest of every resident of Glen Ridge, especially in view of the fact that, with the exception of a house struck by lightning, every fire in Glen Ridge last year was due to carelessness, and therefore preventable.

"Upon application, this bureau will send one of its members to consult with you at your convenience, with a view of giving such advice or making such suggestions as will render your home less liable to fire. An appointment may be made by telephoning to the Glen Ridge fire department or to Chief Brown at the borough clerk's office, or by writing to the secretary of this bureau, P. O. Box 182, Glen Ridge.

"Furthermore, some practical appliances for fire protection, suitable for use in residences, may now be seen in the Borough Council rooms. In order that you may have an opportunity to inspect these, the council rooms will be open to visitors during the office hours of the borough clerk and on Thursday evenings from seven thirty until nine o'clock.

"In case of fire call up Glen Ridge 1147 and give the officer who answers the call the name of the occupant of the house and the street and number where same is located. If you have no telephone, go to the nearest fire alarm box, open the door, pull the hook down once only, all the way, close the door, wait at the box until the apparatus arrives and give the exact location of the fire to the driver.

"Talbot Root, chairman; Robert E. Moss, John A. Brown, William C. Mecher, Richard R. Williams, Jr., secretary."

Mountainside Hospital.

The present conditions of affairs at the Mountainside Hospital shows a steadily increasing work and increasing difficulty in accommodating those who apply for admission.

This is especially the case with the ward patients. For several weeks every bed in the three wards for women has been occupied and the men's wards have been almost as crowded.

There have been about sixty-five operations this month, the highest record so far for any one month, and with thirty-six surgical beds the superintendent of the hospital has found it hard to find places for the patients.

Where it was possible, surgical cases, as well as medical, have had to wait for admission. The large number of ward patients means large expenditure with small returns, as only a small proportion pay the full ward price, and there are many free patients among the number. Each ward patient costs the hospital about $2.50 a day, and as the full price is but one dollar a day, no ward patient meets his entire expense.

If this crowded condition continues the hospital must face a serious problem how to accommodate the patients who seek admission, and how to meet the financial requirements.

Oratorical Contest.

An oratorical contest will be held in the Glen Ridge High School Thursday, May 2. Two prizes will be awarded for the best recitations. Those who will take part are: Jane Bliss, Margaret Sanford, Kathryn Hinrichs, Ruth Eastly, Eleanor Seymour, Marion Schlesier, Isabel Rayner, Marie Witte, Morris Chatterling and Kenneth Wilson. Music will be furnished by the school orchestra consisting of the following: Marion Roubaud, Florence Knight, Dorothy Teal and Adele Jones.

Trolley Trains.

The Public Service Railway Company made a trial trip on the South Orange line of a train of cars operated under the multiple unit system, similar to the method of operating the New York subway trains.

In the experimental train, two cars, each with its own motor, are coupled and are under the control of one motorman, who occupies the front platform of the forward car. The two motors are connected by an electrical cable and both take the current at the same time, so that the cars can be started and stopped simultaneously and smoothly. A separate conductor is provided for each car, and in the case of the rear car all boarding and alighting is by way of the rear platform, the front being kept closed, as there is no motorman there to prevent accidents.
